This image shows a page from a musical score, likely for piano, featuring complex notation and dynamic markings. The score is written on multiple staves, with a watermark reading "ZENEMAKADÉMIA LISZT MUZEUM" visible across the center.

The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. Key markings include:

- fff (fortissimo)
- marcato (marked)
- sempre ff (always fortissimo)
- sf (sforzando)
- p (piano)
- espressivo (expressive)

The score is divided into sections, with a tempo change indicated by "Allegretto. (Tempo di Polacca.)". The notation is dense, with many notes and rests, suggesting a technically demanding piece.

Secondo.

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a series of chords and melodic fragments, with the instruction con espressione written below it. The bass clef staff contains whole rests.

Second system of musical notation. The bass clef staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic and contains a triplet of eighth notes. The treble clef staff contains a triplet of eighth notes marked p legato. Both parts conclude with a fermata.

Third system of musical notation. Both the treble and bass clef staves contain a continuous eighth-note melody, each phrase ending with a fermata.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff features a melody marked poco crescendo. The bass clef staff provides harmonic support with chords. The system ends with the instruction espressivo.

Fifth system of musical notation. Both staves contain a rapid eighth-note melody. The treble clef staff is marked pp (pianissimo) at the beginning and end of the system.

Sixth system of musical notation. The bass clef staff begins with a triplet of eighth notes marked p. The treble clef staff contains chords and melodic fragments, concluding with a piano (p) marked melodic phrase.

Secondo.

A handwritten musical score on aged, yellowed paper. The score consists of two staves, both with bass clefs. The top staff contains a series of chords and eighth notes, with some notes beamed together. The bottom staff features a melodic line with eighth notes and rests. A large brace on the left side groups the two staves. At the bottom left, the word "Lied." is written in a cursive hand. At the bottom right, there is a triplet of eighth notes marked with a "3" and a slur. The paper shows signs of age, including foxing and slight discoloration.

A musical score for a piece titled "Lied. *". The score is written for piano on a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked "Allegretto". The score consists of five measures. The first measure has a forte dynamic. The second measure has a piano dynamic and a "dim." marking. The third measure has a piano dynamic. The fourth and fifth measures are whole rests. The score ends with a double bar line.
