Allegro moderato.

The musical score is written for piano accompaniment. It features three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system begins with a treble staff containing a whole rest, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff contains a whole note, followed by a half note and a quarter note. The second system continues the melodic line in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The third system concludes the piece with a final cadence in both staves. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato.' and the key signature has two flats (B-flat major).

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass staff. The treble staff contains a melody with various note values and rests, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It includes a treble and bass staff. A watermark for "ZENEA KADÉMIA LISZT MŰZEUM" is visible across the center of the system.

Third system of musical notation, concluding the piece. It features a treble and bass staff. The treble staff includes a "rit." (ritardando) marking. The system ends with a double bar line.

The musical score is arranged in three systems. The first system shows the beginning of the piece with a treble clef staff for the first violin (1 Man.) and a grand staff for the piano (2 Man.). The piano part consists of a right-hand staff with a treble clef and a left-hand staff with a bass clef. The tempo is marked 'Adagio' and the time signature is 3/4. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The first violin part starts with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a series of eighth notes. The piano part features a continuous eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the musical development, with the first violin part moving to a higher register and the piano accompaniment providing harmonic support. The third system shows further melodic and harmonic progression, with the first violin part reaching a peak and the piano accompaniment providing a solid foundation. The score is marked with various dynamics including mf (mezzo-forte) and pp (pianissimo), and includes a pedal marking 'Ped. pp'. There are also some red markings on the score, possibly indicating fingerings or performance instructions.
